CALL FOR ZANEC 2022 EDUCATION AND SKILLS SECTOR MEDIA AWARDS

The Zambia National Education Coalition (ZANEC) is calling for entries for the 2022 ZANEC Education Media Awards. The award-giving ceremony is conducted every year to recognize and reward journalists who have contributed towards the need for quality education in our country.

BACKGROUND TO THE AWARDS

The objective of the awards is to promote reporting on Education and Skills Sector hence raising public awareness, understanding, participation and the need for the provision of quality education in the country. Another emerging theme is promotion of education in light of COVID 19 pandemic. The entries must be based on one of the three (3) selected Education Sub Sectors namely:

1. Skills and Tertiary Education - with a bias to Academic Freedoms and quality of education in Higher Institutions of Learning.
2. Mitigating the impact of COVID 19 on Education.
3. Gender and Equity.

The article; program; documentary or video must demonstrate the author or producer's understanding of the Education and Skills Sector at the barest minimum. The articles must also show well researched work compiled by the author. Education articles specifically covering ZANEC positions will have an added advantage.

Eligibility

The awards are open for published and broadcasted works in print, radio, television or online media. Only journalists who are Zambian nationals are eligible for the competition. The competition is only open to individual journalists and not media institutions;
